FREE Breast Feeding Covers - Up For Grabs!

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YzIGh9BtXGU>

If you haven't signed up for your FREE breast feeding cover from UdderCovers, do it now before the offer ends! Go to this website, choose the cover you want, and use promo code ONEFREE to waive the cost (regularly $32). You only pay a shipping and handling fee of $9.95. I actually ordered two additional covers in addition to the free one. I got them in the mail a couple weeks ago and LOVE them so much I don't know how I got on without them before!

I ordered 3 in total because I don't do laundry every day and want to have enough to last at least a week. I figured since I was paying shipping and handling anyway, why not order more at the same time (they only charge $1 per additional item).

All breastfeeding covers from UdderCovers are machine washable and made of 100% cotton. A flexible but rigid ring at the neckline creates an open space that lets you see your baby while you're nursing. This neckline is fully adjustable.

I wished I knew these breastfeeding covers existed when I had my first daughter. I used to have to schedule my errands around her feeding times. Oh well. I'm still grateful I get to use them for my younger daughter now.

UdderCovers sends their covers by USPS 1st class mail, within two business days after you place your order. According to their refund policy, you can ask for a refund within 14 days if you regret your purchase. Conditions apply so please see UdderCovers for more details.
